

Kibris Turkish Airlines

22 June 2010

Updated News

We write to inform you that due to the Turkish Aviation's decision to suspend Cyprus Turkish Airlines permit all flights are suspended until further notice. An unannounced strike in North Cyprus has also added to this disruption.

Talks between the TRNC Government officials and the relative authorities are in progress to remedy the situation. Further information on the talks will be released as and when we receive official news with remedies

No agents or passengers with future bookings will be inconvenienced.
